AN UNGRATEFUL SUN.

The New York Sun continues to rub salt in the wounds of the democratic party. It has no mercy on the outcome of its own miserable work, and charges Mr. Cleveland with all sorts of political misgivings. In this the Sun is unfair and ungrateful. It now notifies the president that he must go, that the people will make him go, and that the democracy is tired of him.

The New York Sun was the first newspaper in this country to assume that corruption existed and to shout, "Turn the rascals out!" Cleveland followed the advice of the Sun, and has turned out close on to 80,000 republicans, including about all except little cross road postmasters and clerks and letter carriers under the protection of the civil service bill, and in Chicago, Philadelphia and Cincinnati, even the civil service law has been disregarded, and nearly a clean sweep has been made. Nearly all the responsible ones have been turned out and their papers and records have been raked over and over in search of their rascalities, but all in vain. If there had been any credence of corruption in the executive departments does any sensible person suppose that it would not have been ferreted out long ago by investigation committees? It was all the capital the democrats had when they came into power. It is all the capital they have for the future. It is a little too late now, after two years have gone and the corruption does not turn up, to turn upon Cleveland and charge him with a failure to disclose it, or to try to foist him on the republican party. The republicans have no use for a man who bets on a pair of deuces. It is a sneaking effort on the part of the Sun to cover up the miserable failure of its issue. Meanwhile we would suggest to that luminary that Secretary Manning missed a penny when he came into office and found it on the floor; that Secretary Whitney investigated the Dolphin and found it structurally weak and thereupon bankrupted John Roach, though the Dolphin still sails the seas as stanch as any vessel in the navy; and that Garland, a good democrat, still remains in the cabinet.

It will be seen from this record that the Sun has no business to stab the president. He has done just what the Sun wanted him to do, but when it saw that there was no corruption in republican administrations, and that rascals were put in instead of rascals being turned out, then the Sun kicks. But to do the fair thing it should kick itself and not the president.

The system of contract prison labor in the Sing Sing prison, New York, terminates, under a law passed in 1883, with the present month. The convicts have partially been engaged in manufacturing shoes. The state has decided to purchase the plant of the contractors, and 400 convicts will be continued at the work. The only change in their condition will be that the state takes and disposes of the product of their labor instead of a contractor. About 560 convicts in the same prison will be employed in the manufacture of stoves on state account. It is not easy to discover in what way outside laborers will be benefited by the change. The labor agitators demanded the change and the people very foolishly voted to abolish the contract system. They will now have to pay very dearly for their folly. Running Sing Sing under the public account system will not only prove expensive to the state, but the work of convicts will compete with free labor just as much as ever. Sometimes the people vote when they do not know what they are voting for.

The LaCrosse county judgship has been settled by the appointment of Thomas A. Dyson, by the governor. The State Journal says that Lieutenant Governor Ryland while occupying the gubernatorial chair, had very carefully considered the matter when brought before him and had settled upon Dyson as best fitted for the place. Governor Rusk coincided with the view of the lieutenant governor. Dyson represented LaCrosse county in the senate last winter, as he also will at the next session, his appointment to the county judgship constituting no bar to his serving as a legislator. Senator Dyson is a young man of much promise and moreover a good lawyer. His popular following in the last campaign when he was elected senator despite the efforts of a combination to defeat him, shows his standing among the people of his county.

Talking about Indiana, the Philadelphia Times says: "They haven't a dollar in the state treasury in Indiana, but the offices are filled with spoilsmen, and Senator Voorhees is still howling for a cleanup sweep in other states. Taken as a whole this fact probably cannot be twisted into an argument against the spoilsmen. It is more likely another black eye for George William Curtis and the mugwumps, who have become widely known in recent years as the advocates of the Indiana idea. For particulars see the organs." This is a different tune from that which the Times played several months ago. For a year or more after Mr. Cleveland began his work of bouncing republicans that the democrats might have office, the Times was loud in its praise of the president. Now that the state treasury of Indiana is bankrupted and all of the federal offices are filled by spoilsmen, the Times begins to nick its new party. It should have done the kicking when Cleveland began to disgrace the civil service.

A recognized authority on sugar estimates that the world's production of the article in 1886-'87 is about 449,000 tons larger than that of the last preceding year. He thanks, however, that this fact will be compensated by an increased consumption, most of which he credits to Europe and North America. The stocks at the beginning of last July (visible supply) are stated to have been about 832,000 tons, against 944,000 tons one year previously and 960,000 tons a two years ago. After making several minor allowances, which need not be stated in detail, it is estimated that the total stocks were 42,000 tons less this midsummer than they were at the same date in 1886.

The Iowa republicans have renominated Governor Larrabee. The platform is a good one because it deals with live issues and is strong in language and firm and just in spirit. It comes out boldly for an enforcement of the prohibitory law:

"9. Iowa has no compromise to hold with the saloon. We declare in favor of the faithful and vigorous enforcement in all parts of the state of the prohibitory law. The pharmacy law and county permit law should be so amended as to prevent the drugstore or wholesale liquor law from becoming in any manner the substitute or successor of the saloon.

Iowa will give a rousing republican majority, and will carry the spirit of the platform in the campaign.

A dispatch from Madison announces that Professor Asaph Hall, of the naval observatory, who was elected to the position of consulting director of the Washburn observatory, arrived there Tuesday evening to assume charge of his duties. He will remain there only about three months in each year, which time will be devoted by him to independent astronomical observations. The work of instruction will devolve entirely upon the associate director, Professor George C. Comstock. The nature of the work to be pursued by the management has as yet not been determined.

Mrs. D. G. Croly, better known as "Jennie June," the popular writer, is president of the Woman's Endowment cattle company which has just been incorporated in New Jersey. Its capital stock is placed at $1,500,000, divided into 3,000 shares of $500 each. The company has control of nearly 2,000,000 acres of the grazing land in New Mexico. There are now 6,000 head of cattle on the ranch. The stock is to be placed with women as an endowment for their children.

"After one year's trial of prohibition, the state of Rhode Island finds that it is out of pocket $250,000 which saloon licenses once brought it, together with the costs of an attempted enforcement of the law—and that there is about as much liquor-drinking in the state as ever." Let us see, Rhode Island is in the hands of the democratic party, and is there by the grace of the prohibitionists.

Lieutenant Governor Waterman, of California, will meet with a piece of political good fortune in the event of Governor Bartlett's death, which now seems imminent. He will become the republican governor of the state, succeeding a democrat.

If the prohibitionists would help the temperance reformers to cut down the surplus of saloons, there would be some good in their work. But when they go to war with the cry "anything to beat the republican party", they increase the saloon surplus.

Horace T. Cook, treasurer of Cayuga county, New York, is entitled to distinction as a tenacious officeholder. He was first elected to that position thirty-nine years ago, and has just been renominated for the fourteenth consecutive time.

The latest commendation of the administration of a mugwump comes from the Boston Herald, which thoughtfully says, after mature reflection that "the administration has been virtuous in spots only."

The president will not find fishing very good in the west this fall. The voters won't bite even at taffy for bait when offered by a president.

Knew He Would Die Next Morning.

Harry Reese, an old colored man, died on the place of J. W. Clopton, in Sumter County, Ga., a few days ago at the advanced aged of 108 years. He was very interesting in his stories of the war of 1812, having accompanied his young master. He told his son after eating a hearty supper: "Dat is my last meal. I'so gwine lee die ter night." "Pshaw!" said his son; "you're in good health and will live years yet." "Yes," said the old man, "I'se got good health, but ole Harry'll answer de roll-call in heaben in de mawnin'. Good-bye," and kissing his son he went to sleep. He was found dead the next morning.

He Never Stuttered.

A good story is told of a Kingston man who has an impediment in his speech. One day a stranger arrived in town who professed to be able to cure a person afflicted with stuttering. Several wags, knowing how sensitive the Kingston man was on the subject, to play a joke sent the stranger to the man's office, telling him that the man stuttered and wanted to get cured. The stranger entered the office and, after nodding to the man, said: "I was sent here by several of your friends to cure you of stuttering. I make a specialty of the business." "Geg-geget out of my my of-of-office. Yo-you lie, I don't stut-stut-stutter."

LARRABEE'S LUCK.

Iowa's Governor Nominated for a Second Term.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Radical Platform Adopted—The Liquor Traffic Denounced—Senator Allison's Name Warmly Received—Other Political Notes.

IOWA REPUBLICANS.

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 25.—The Republican State convention, which was held in this city yesterday, was largely attended. The ticket nominated was as follows:

Governor, William Larrabee; Lieutenant-Governor, J. A. T. Hall; Supreme Judge, C. S. Robinson; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Henry Sabin.

At the morning session Judge John Brennan, of Sioux City, was chosen temporary chairman, and after the selection of various committees an adjournment was taken till afternoon.

Reassembling at two o'clock General D. B. Henderson was made permanent chairman. General Henderson, in accepting the chair, said the Democratic Administration had done many things. It had taken its place by fraud and had swindled the mugwumps. Cleveland had been inaugurated to the echoes of the tunes of "Maryland, My Maryland," and "Bonnie Blue Flag," and Pitzhugh Lee was a conspicuous figure in the procession. The flag had been lowered on the death of friend Thompson. Pension bills passed under the omnipotent power of Congress had been vetoed from the White House, and crippled, trembling veterans were insulted by Cleveland in his messages. Flags torn from the hands of treason and laid away had been returned to their former owners. Decoration Day had been put to a new use by a Democratic President. A Republican President never could have penned the cowardly, cringing letter that a Democratic President sent to St. Louis. Changing his subject, Chairman Henderson said he had been more than gratified to hear, outside and in the hall, the encomiums passed upon his distinguished fellow-townsman, Hon. W. B. Allison, and the determination by resolution to commit the State to his support as the standard-bearer of his party in 1888. But he trusted this would not be done. Let that be deferred until next spring at a separate convention.

Governor William Larrabee was nominated for a second term by acclamation, cheers accompanying the vote. Lieutenant-Governor J. A. T. Hall was also named for re-election by acclamation. Five ballots were taken for Supreme Judge. On the first Adams received 308; Robinson, 196; Ruddick, 94; Lewis, 142; Granger, 77; Miracle, 95. On the fifth formal ballot for Supreme Judge Senator George S. Robinson was nominated.

For Superintendent the following is the first ballot: Sabin, 202; Grambling, 175; Frost, 114; Carney, 97; Fellows, 148; Coffeen, 50; Eldridge, 140. On the third ballot Henry Sabin, of Clinton, was nominated by the following vote: Sabin, 730; Grambling, 222; Frost, 44—the nomination being made unanimous.

The platform, which was adopted unanimously, is in brief as follows:

It accepts as settled all the old war issues; denounces the suppression of negro votes in the South as a National wrong; favors a protective tariff and the revision of the revenue laws of the State; opposes vicious and criminal immigration and contract prison labor; favors holding public lands and reclaiming unearned land grants for the use of the actual settlers. It pronounces in favor of the Civil-Service law "enacted by the Republican party and now so flagrantly disobeyed and violated by the Democratic Administration." The sixth plank is as follows:

"We are unable to give the commendation of good citizens to the administration of Grover Cleveland. In its discrimination against and its shameful abuse of Union soldiers and the constant preference it has shown to the men who fought to destroy the Union; in its despotic use of the Executive power to veto bills passed by Congress for the relief of Union soldiers and the Des Moines river land settlers; in its attempt to reverse the verdict of the war by a surrender of the rebel battle-flags; in its failure to redeem the surplus or decrease taxation, and for its broken promises to the people and its inefficient discharge of the public services, we are compelled to denounce it as being unpatriotic, unworthy, a disappointment to the country, and a fresh proof of the incapacity of the Democratic party to conduct successfully the affairs of the Nation."

The seventh and eighth sections maintain the theory of public regulation and control of railways and other corporations and the obligation of the country to the soldiers of the late war and their dependent widows and parents. The ninth plank deals with prohibition, and reads:

"Iowa has no compromise to hold with the saloon. We declare in favor of the faithful and vigorous enforcement in all parts of the State of the Prohibitory law. The Pharmacy law and the County Permit law should be so amended as to prevent the Drug-store or Wholesale Liquor law from becoming in any manner the substitute or successor of the saloon."

The tenth section expresses sympathy for all people struggling for home rule, whether they be Irish people or the people of Dakota or other Territories deprived of home rule by Democratic legislation. The last section approves the State administration and commends Governor Larrabee for his courageous defense of the people from the extortation of railway monopolies, and for his protest in behalf of Iowa against Cleveland's attempted surrender of the rebel battle-flags.

The striking features of the convention and the day were the enthusiasm and unanimity in favor of Senator Allison. He was cheered every time his name was mentioned with a heartiness of complete accord that left no doubt of the enthusiastic desire of his State to present his name for the Presidency at the proper time. But for his own advice, and active efforts of his nearest friends in support of it, that all personal ambitions should wait on party interest, and that the party should wait till next year, and get the latest judgment of the people, the convention would have declared for him.

MARYLAND REPUBLICANS.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 25.—The State Republican convention, which met here yesterday, was the largest and most enthusiastic gathering of Republicans held here for many years. Hon. Lewis C. McComas presided, and the following ticket was nominated: For Governor, Walter B. Brooks, of Baltimore; for Comptroller, R. B. Dixon, of Talbot County; for Attorney-General, Francis Miller, of Montgomery County.

The platform adopted affirms the principles promulgated by the last Republican National convention, and declares:

"The reform in the civil service should be thorough, radical and complete. To that end it demands the cooperation of the Legislature with the Executive department of the Government, and that Congress shall so legislate that fitness, ascertained by proper, practical competition, shall admit to public service; that the tenure of office shall be made secure during good behavior, and that the power of removal for cause shall accompany the power of appointment. The principles thus declared with reference to the National Government shall be applied in their full force to the government of the State of Maryland and the city of Baltimore."

The President's professions of civil-service reform are by his actions proven to be hollow and delusive, and his failure to call the Federal office-holders to account for their open and shameless disregard of his own declarations that they should not engage in efforts to control the political action of their own party is a confession of the insincerity of his party, or a proof that his will is controlled by the stronger will of the senior Senator from Maryland.

The remaining sections call on Congress to pass the Blair Educational bill; suggests the passage of laws against discrimination against colored children in public schools; for adjusting differences between capital and labor, and for restricting pauper and criminal immigration.

After the business of the convention was concluded a sensation was caused by the appearance on the floor of John K. Cowen, a prominent lawyer and leader of the reform movement in the Democratic party. He was introduced, and in one of the strongest speeches ever listened to in this city pledged to the Republican ticket the full support of the Independent Democrats.

PENNSYLVANIA PROHIBITIONISTS.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 25.—Both sessions of the State Prohibition convention yesterday were opened with prayer. About 400 delegates, probably a dozen of whom were women, were present, and fifty-two of the sixty-seven counties in the State are represented. The convention was organized by the election of Hon. Charles S. Wolf, of Union County, as chairman, and a long list of vice-presidents. The platform adopted denounces the liquor traffic and demands the prohibition of the same by constitutional amendment; upbraids the present great political parties for their cowardice to meet the saloon power at the ballot-box; favors protection to American labor and capital; the restriction of immigration as against pauper and criminal classes; the reservation of the public land for actual settlers; popular education with the retention of the Bible in the public schools; just pensions to dependent soldiers or their families; civil service based on personal character and official fitness and a wise and economical administration of public affairs. It also favors equal taxation, arbitration in labor disputes, and woman suffrage, and denounces the "continental Sunday."

A committee of three was appointed to investigate charges of unjust discrimination on the part of the Pennsylvania railroad in favor of the Republican party.

All that remains for the convention to do is the nomination of candidates, which will take place this morning. It is generally conceded that Simon B. Chase, of Easton, who was the Prohibition candidate for Supreme Judge in 1879, will again be named, and that his colleague will be Captain Dallas C. Irish, of New Castle, for State Treasurer.

POWDERLY'S DENIAL.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A Scranton, Pa., special says: General Master Workman Powderly has made public a letter in which he says: "When the American National Committee meet next month in Philadelphia they will not represent me. I am not in any way connected with the organization. While I am an American I am not interested in reviving purely American ideas. I am not anxious to see the tomahawk and scalping-knife flourish again in this country. I have no desire to rekindle the camp-fires of the purely American, nor do I wish to see the re-establishment of the ducking-pond or the burning of witches. I am content to devote my time to the revival of an interest in the declaration of American independence and the re-establishment of the rule of the American people, independent of party or monopoly. I am of the opinion that I can work out these ends as a member of the Knights of Labor."

THE NATIONAL REFORM PARTY.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 25.—At a session of the National Reform party yesterday it was decided to call a State convention for October 4 in this city. A State ticket will then be put in nomination and delegates chosen to the National convention of the party, which will meet in Springfield, Ill., on October 13.

UNDER HEAVY BONDS.

Miss Sarah Dodge, Charged with the Killing of Colonel Babcock, Released on Bail of $10,000—A Theory.

GARDNER, Ill., Aug. 25.—Miss Sarah H. Dodge, charged with the murder of Colonel Babcock, yesterday waived examination and was admitted to bail in $10,000. The matter will come up before the Grundy County grand jury, which meets at Morris on September 5. It is said that Babcock had borrowed a large sum of money from Miss Dodge and had betrayed her under a promise of marriage. One theory is that he refused to pay her and also to keep his promise of marriage, and the woman, becoming desperate, drew a revolver with the intention of committing suicide. Babcock undertook to wrest the weapon from her, and in the struggle it was discharged, inflicting the wound which caused his death. Miss Dodge refuses to talk about the tragedy.

Ives' Affairs.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Henry S. Ives yesterday swore that he had no knowledge of the whereabouts of the missing books of his firm; that he did not know when they were taken or by whom. George H. Stayner, his partner, testified to the same effect.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Aug. 25.—At the annual meeting of the Mineral Range Railroad Company held here yesterday the Ives party was dropped from the directorate. Ives is charged with misappropriating $328,000 of the company's securities.

Operations Resumed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The San Francisco call board resumed operations Monday after a suspension of nineteen days. The market, contrary to expectation, has been very weak, and transactions trifling. The continued fall in values is an enigma to the uninitiated on the slope. Mackay, the "bonanza king," still insists that he has no interest of any character in the market.

Making War on Convict Labor.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 25.—Much indignation has been aroused lately on account of convicts being employed on public works in this city, and a mass-meeting is called for to protest against this and to take such action as may be deemed necessary for their immediate removal. The people are very determined, and say the convicts will have to go.

O'Brien Summoned.

DUBLIN, Aug. 25.—William O'Brien has been summoned to appear before a magistrate for making inflammatory speeches at Mitchelstown on the 9th and 11th instants. The hearing in the case of Mr. O'Brien has been fixed for September 9.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 25.—The largest comet that has appeared in many years was visible here last night in the northern sky. Its outline is somewhat dim, but is perfectly plain to the naked eye. It was first noticed about ten o'clock.

A COLLISION BETWEEN TWO TRAINS.

Two Employes Lose Their Lives and Fifteen Immigrants Are Badly Crushed—Investigating the Attempted Train-Wrecking in Illinois.

INJURED IMMIGRANTS.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 25.—Emigrant train No. 83, coming west on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad yesterday morning at eight o'clock, ran into freight train No. 88 at Easton siding, twenty miles east of this city. Al Smith, engineer of the emigrant train, and Isaac Arbuthnot, his fireman, were instantly killed. The engineer and fireman of the freight train are only slightly injured. Fifteen of the emigrants were seriously, but none fatally, hurt. They have been taken to Cameron for surgical attention. Smith and Arbuthnot lived in Wheeling, where they have families. The accident was the result of a misapprehension of orders on the part of the engineer of the freight train, who thought he had the right of way and pulled out of the siding just as the emigrant train came up.

The passengers of the train consisted of Norwegians, Finns, Danes, Germans, Dutch, and a few English. Most of them kept their heads, and as soon as the first paroxysm of terror had subsided lent their efforts to disengaging their fellow-passengers from the debris and attending to their injuries.

FATAL WRECK IN NEBRASKA.

THE WORK OF DISCHARGED EMPLOYES.

MOUNT PULASKI, Ill., Aug. 25.—The Logan County sheriff and detectives who have been working up the attempt to wreck the Peoria, Decatur & Evansville passenger train Tuesday night claim to have struck a clew. It is thought to be the work of discharged employes. The train does not carry express matter, and the idea of robbery is scouted.

BOUND TO HAVE THE ROAD.

The Manitobans Continue Its Construction in Spite of Injunctions—Sir John's Denial.

MONTREAL, Aug. 25.—Another injunction against the Red River Valley railroad was applied for at Winnipeg yesterday. The Montreal Gazette, organ of the Dominion government, warns the Manitobans that there is trouble in store for them if they refuse to obey the decrees of courts. Arguments in the injunction cases have been postponed for a fortnight, but in the meantime the construction of the road is being prosecuted vigorously, the Manitoba government being determined to complete it in time to move this year's crop.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 25.—A telegram was received here yesterday from Sir John Macdonald repudiating the interview which is alleged to have taken place between himself and Major Walsh regarding affairs in the Northwest, Manitoba disallowance, etc., which was published throughout the country. Sir John positively refuses to express an opinion until the higher court, to which an appeal has been made, has rendered its verdict.

FROSTS IN THE NORTHWEST.

They Are Slight, However, and Little Damage Thus Far Done.

GALESBURG, Ill., Aug. 25.—There was a light frost here yesterday morning. Corn is out of danger. The probability is that the grape crop is slightly injured.

MOUNT CARROLL, Ill., Aug. 25.—A slight frost visited the low lands in this vicinity Tuesday night. It is thought that the damage to the crops will be slight. The recent heavy rains have helped the corn and pastures greatly, and if there is no heavy frost in the next two weeks corn will make more than half a crop.

PALMYRA, Wis., Aug. 25.—A light frost fell on the low lands hereabouts Tuesday night, doing no damage. If it holds off the cucumber crop will turn out well, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather of early summer. The Palmyra branch of the Milwaukee pickle factory is now receiving over 500 bushels of cucumbers daily from growers.

Sleeping-Car Passengers Robbed.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 25.—Passengers on the Vandalia sleeper of the Pan-Handle express, which arrived here yesterday morning from the West, report that J. M. Critchlow, of this city, had his pocket-book and a gold watch stolen, and Colonel W. C. Starr, of Richmond, Ind., lost a gold watch and chain valued at $200. Mr. Critchlow's pocket-book contained $48 cash and notes amounting to $6,500. The robbery was committed between Bradford Junction and Steubenville, O. Mr. Critchlow says none of his paper is negotiable, and his loss is about $175. There is no clew to the thieves.

Money for Fidelity Bank Depositors.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The Comptroller of the Currency said yesterday that a dividend will be declared out of the assets of the Fidelity Bank of Cincinnati about September 1. There is about $1,000,000 on deposit with the Comptroller for this purpose. All creditors of the bank have been notified to file their claims at once. A second dividend will probably be declared about September 27.

Burned to Death.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—William Clark, one of the oldest residents of Niles, a little town about twelve or fourteen miles southwest of Chicago, was burned to death yesterday at his home in that village. Mr. Clark was eighty years old, infirm and almost blind, and it is supposed his clothing took fire in some way and he was unable to help himself.

Rates Reduced.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The Southern Pacific Company has decided to reduce its present four-cent per mile rates to three cents, five-cent rates to four cents and six-cent rates to five cents on all lines throughout the country controlled by the Southern and Central Pacific.

Two Rioters Killed.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The riots between English and Belgian fishermen at Ostend were renewed yesterday. The troops turned their artillery on the rioters, killing two and wounding several others. A proclamation forbidding the assembling of crowds has been issued.

General Black Seriously Ill.

WEIRS, N. H., Aug. 25.—General John C. Black, Commissioner of Pensions, a guest of the New Hampshire veterans, is reported quite ill with inflammatory rheumatism at the residence of Stillson Hutchins, and has been attended by three physicians.

The Minneapolis Mills.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 25.—The flour output last week was 140,430 barrels. Nineteen mills are now in operation, most of them by steam power, as the water power is in a state of collapse.

ILLINOIS SOLDIERS' REUNIONS.

A Large Gathering at Girard—Veterans at Dixon.

GIRARD, Ill., Aug. 25.—The seventh annual reunion of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Association of Macoupin County is being held here, and the city is fairly swarming with old soldiers and visitors. Eight thousand people were on the grounds yesterday afternoon, and much enthusiasm prevailed. All of the principal business houses and residences are beautifully decorated. Ample arrangements were made to accommodate the gathering and every thing is passing off pleasantly. Early in the morning a National salute of thirteen guns was fired. A procession marched from the depot to the city park, where the exercises were opened by prayer by Elder B. B. Hamilton, of Whitehall. Addresses were made by Captain Sargent McKnight, of this city; Captain Peebles, of Carlinville; ex-Governor Palmer, Captain Hedley, of Bunker Hill, and Rev. E. S. Wilkin, of Carlinville. A camp-fire was held at night.

DIXON, Ill., Aug. 25.—The soldiers' reunion here is a grand success. Over 3,000 persons were on the camp-grounds yesterday. Stirring speeches were made by Governor Oglesby, General John C. Smith, Major J. T. Cheney, General Wallace and several others. A very able address of welcome was first delivered by Major A. C. Warner. The old soldiers are meeting and greeting each other like long-lost brothers. The meeting continues to-day, when many more will be added to the number.

Ely's Cream Balm was recommended to me by my druggist as a preventive to hay fever. Have been using it as directed since the 9th of August and have found it a specific for that much dreaded and loathsome disease. For ten years or more I have been a great sufferer each year, from August 9th till frost, and have tried many alleged remedies for its cure, but Ely's Cream Balm is the only preventive I have ever found. Hay fever sufferers ought to know of its efficacy. —F. B. Ainsworth, Publisher, Indianapolis, Ind.

The City of Montreal's Missing Passengers and Crew Rescued.

PICKED UP AT SEA BY A PASSING VESSEL.

The Survivors Give an Account of Their Wanderings on the Ocean—Suffering Badly from Thirst—Their Stories.

RESCUED AT LAST.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The City of Montreal's missing boat has been picked up, and the seven passengers and six members of the crew who were in it are safe and well. The rescue was made by a German vessel named the Mathilde, which arrived at Falmouth yesterday with the thirteen survivors on board. The survivors say that on the first day after leaving the steamer they experienced very rough weather. They had a plentiful supply of bread and meat, but very little water. As a consequence they suffered badly from thirst. The weather was hot, and this greatly contributed to their discomfort. When rescued they were in latitude 42 min. 54 sec. north, longitude 49 min. 20 sec. west. The boat was rescued on the 15th inst. The Mathilde was from Campeche for Falmouth.

The rescued men say that when their boat left the burning steamer there were fifteen persons on board. Finding it too crowded two persons jumped aboard another boat. There was only half a keg of water in the boat and that was bad. There was no sail aboard and no means for signaling passing vessels. The boat was nearly swamped twice and the men had a hard struggle to keep her afloat by bailing. On Thursday they sighted a steamer and pulled toward her, signaling with a jacket and a handkerchief, but the steamer passed on without seeing them. On Friday they sighted another steamer at a great distance. On Saturday they sighted another vessel and pulled toward it, and found that it was the City of Montreal, still burning. They tried to board her to obtain more water, but her plates were too hot. They drifted until Monday, when they were rescued by the Mathilde. They laud the kindness of the Mathilde's captain and crew.

THE POPE'S JUBILEE.

A Grand Time Anticipated in the City of Rome Next Month.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The preparations for the Pope's jubilee will begin at Rome in September on an extensive scale. Among the features of the celebration will be an exhibition, which will be formally opened in the presence of the Pope, Dom Pedro II., Emperor of Brazil, and the envoys of all the sovereigns of Europe. An ode to the Pope will be written by M. Gounod, and presented to the Pope on the anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, December 23, which day will be the principal one of the celebration. It is the intention of those into whose hands the arrangements for the celebration have been intrusted to surround the occasion with a display of magnificence surpassing any event that has occurred in Europe within the century, and no expense will be spared to achieve the results aimed at.

A Meteor's Flight.

CENTRALIA, Ill., Aug. 25.—About 7:30 o'clock last night the heavens north of this city were brilliantly illuminated by the passage of an unusually large meteor from the east to the west, traveling apparently very low. The ball of fire or body of the meteor seemed to be about the size of a flour barrel, and it left a parachute trail of great width behind it. Those that witnessed it were greatly amazed, and nothing similar has ever been seen in this locality.

Date Changed.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 25.—The committee having in charge the issuance of the call for a mass-meeting in this city to express the State sentiment regarding the construction of the ship-canal from the lake to the Mississippi has postponed the meeting from October 6 to October 11, having received advices from the southern part of the State that it could be more largely attended on the latter date.

Fears for the Texas Cotton Crop.

BONHAM, Tex., Aug. 25.—Reports are coming in from different parts of the county that the boll worm and army worms are devastating the cotton crop. Unless their ravages soon cease they will entail a loss of thousands of dollars to this county. Should the cotton crop fail, following as it would on the heels of the drought of last season, it would be a dire calamity to this county.

Peace Favored.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Daily Telegram commends the American peace memorial, and says: "There should be no question burning enough to justify war between the two great English-speaking nations, who are of common blood and have a common language and literature. If the memorial proves successful it might lead to European international arbitration."

Failed for $100,000.

KITTANNING, Pa., Aug. 25.—G. W. Wilkins, the extensive lumberman and boat-builder, made an assignment yesterday of all his property. Mr. Wilkins had a very large business and was estimated as being worth over $100,000. His liabilities are not known. It is believed that some lumber contracts made some time ago are the cause of the failure.

Production of Sugar.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—A recognized authority on sugar estimates that the world's production of the article in 1886-'87 is about 440,000 tons larger than that of the last preceding year. He thinks, however, that this fact will be compensated by an increased consumption, most of which he credits to Europe and North America.

To Avoid Starvation.

LINCOLN, Ill., Aug. 25.—An old man took poison here Tuesday night, which resulted in his death yesterday morning. He was about seventy years old, and papers on his person gave the name of S. B. Gilford. He was selling patent bedsprings, and it is supposed he was in short circumstances and killed himself to avoid starvation.

Mortgaged for Large Sums.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—There was filed for record Tuesday in the Recorder's office a mortgage executed by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad Company in this city to the Boston Safety Deposit and Trust Company, dated July 1, 1887, to secure bonds not to exceed $10,000,000.

To Be Rebuilt.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 25.—Bids are being received for rebuilding the lower sugar-works by the American Glucose Company. The building will be 104 by 186, five stories, fire-proof, and employ 300 hands, to be completed January 1. The capacity will be 5,000 bushels.

Lands to Be Opened for Settlement.

PRESCOTT, A. T., Aug. 25.—The register and receiver of the United States land office here have been instructed to open for settlement the lands in their district hitherto withdrawn for indemnity purposes under the Atlantic and Pacific grant.

In Brief and to The Point.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existance. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular hours, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

Babies that are fretful, peevish, cross, or troubled with Windy Colic, Teething Pains, or Stomach Disorders, can be relieved at once by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine, hence is safe. Price 25 cents. Sold by Prentice & Evenson O. P. O.

FORTY YEARS A POSTMAN.

A New Yorker Who Has Delivered Over Five Million Pieces of Mail Matter.

Little has ever been written about the old postmen who have spent their lives working for us here, says the New York World. The higher officials in the post-office building do not like to have the employes interviewed. There is something pathetic in the life-work of these men, who, when they get too old to attend to their duties, are shoved aside to starve, if so be. Other faithful public servants are pensioned. Not so with these men. With postmen, more than any other class of public servants, lengthy service means proved trustworthiness. Thousands of dollars pass through their hands, and valuable documents and important letters are entrusted to them. But people forget these things. Less ornamental than the policeman as a sidewalk adornment, and infinitely more useful, the postman's familiar figure betrays nothing of the time he has done duty on the streets. There are no stripes on the postman's coat sleeve indicating the years he has traveled to and fro on his peaceful errands. Yet each year added to his record sheds a luster upon his character as an honest employe of the Government. The drawback, so far as he is concerned, is that he flourishes in virtue comparatively unknown. Non-political, he can hope for no advancement by influence. He is wholly at the mercy of his superiors, who cast light or shade upon his existence as they may choose. He is doomed to hard work year in and year out. The people of one district no sooner become acquainted with him than he is removed to another and he is quickly forgotten by his former friends.

Thus a letter-carrier may go on his rounds for twenty or thirty years without the fact being publicly known. A letter-carrier with the patience of Job and the modesty of a saint could pass a lifetime delivering mail in this city without other than his immediate acquaintances being aware of it.

Charles A. Tyler has the longest record of any postman perhaps in the United States, certainly in New York. He was appointed in 1845 through the instrumentality of Edwin Crosswell, then editor of the Albany Argus. He has done every kind of postal work—delivered and collected letters, superintended a station, and clerked at a money-order office. Since 1880 he has attended to all the mail matter on Governor's Island, where he is a general favorite. Forty-three years is a long period to pass in any department of the civil service. As the experience of a letter-carrier it implies not only a career of rectitude, but familiarity with the various changes that have affected our postal system. Mr. Tyler's hair has grown silvery in the work. He is sixty-four years of age and far from infirm. There were twenty-five regular carriers when he sought a position among them. He commenced as an outside assistant. The regulars had the privilege of hiring whatever help they needed. Finally he obtained a route to himself, some two and a half miles round, with the city hall as its center. Fifty men are now detailed to it.

Those were halcyon days for the postmen. They had their deliveries daily at nine in the morning, noon and three in the afternoon. They levied tribute on the public. For each letter delivered they received two cents and for each newspaper one cent. Many of them made money. When they had more mail than they could distribute they resorted to a drug store or grocery, where they parceled up the surplus for their assistants to deliver. It was nothing for a "regular" to earn ten or twelve dollars per day, and his gains increased when the gold fever broke out.

The first improvement in the post-office was to stamp the amount of postage on the cover of the mail. If in red letters, it was to be paid by the receiver. Some amusing incidents occurred in this connection. The carriers did not quite comprehend the salary principle. A list of the postage they were to collect was kept by the clerk, and on Friday, which was pay-day, the total sum for the week was deducted from their wages. "Well," said Mr. Tyler, "as a set-off against this imposition, as they called it—for it was mighty hard to convince them that the postage charged was not their due—some of them collected the amount on the envelope, whether it was printed in black or red figures. Consequently double postage was extorted on some letters. So long as the public did not grumble the carriers were indifferent. They did it to be on the safe side, and sure enough, when Friday came round, the majority of them not only had enough to meet the bill for 'reds' but a nice nest-egg for the following week."

Mr. Tyler calculates that he has delivered over five million pieces of mail matter since he joined the service, including at least half a million letters, etc., to Governor's Island.

THE HOSTILE UTES.

Governor Adams Calls on Secretary Lamar to Order Crook to Remove the Indians to Their Reservation.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 25.—In response to the dispatch received Tuesday night from General Reardon at Meeker by courier, via Glenwood Springs, in which he asks for more troops, Governor Adams telegraphed in the negative. He advises Reardon to use the troops to protect women and children, and not to go on any excursive expeditions until he knows the whereabouts of Kendall and the position and strength of the Indians. The Governor is asking for more definite information as to the condition of affairs in the troubled country. The request made to have martial law declared in Garfield County, Governor Adams stated, would be denied. The Governor has also sent a dispatch to Secretary Lamar, asking him to order General Crook to remove the Indians to the reservation. He refers to the alarm of the settlers, and states they will be afraid to return to their homes until the Indians are removed, and that the State troops are now being used to protect the women and children.

A CORN CARNIVAL.

SIOUX CITY, Aug. 25.—Arrangements have just been completed for the erection of a corn palace in this city, and a grand jubilee week in celebration of the immense crop of corn will be held in October 4 to 8. The corn palace will be a structure reared of corn. The principal streets will be arched and decorated with corn, ladies will wear corn as a decoration, and veritably corn will be king. The exhibition will not be confined to Iowa alone, but the great cornfields of Nebraska, Minnesota and Dakota will send their quota. Sioux City is in the center of them all. The exhibition is to be purely agricultural, with prizes for the best exhibits. Each day during the jubilee there will be parades, representing the various manufacturing and business interests of the city, with a grand display of fireworks and flambeau procession each evening. Twenty thousand dollars has been subscribed as a starter.

Base-Ball.

Ball-playing was again rendered impossible at Boston Wednesday by the condition of the grounds, and the entire Chicago-Boston series scheduled for this week has therefore been postponed. Other National League games resulted as follows: At Washington—Detroit 20; Washington, 1. At Philadelphia—Philadelphia, 10; Indianapolis, 9. At New York—Pittsburgh, 2; New York, 1.

American Association: At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 5; Metropolitan, 3. At Louisville—Athletic, 15; Louisville, 8. At Cleveland—Cleveland 7; Brooklyn, 3. At St. Louis—St. Louis, 23; Baltimore, 6.

Northwestern League: At St. Paul—St. Paul, 4; Eau Claire, 1. At Oshkosh—Oshkosh, 4; Des Moines, 2. At Duluth—Duluth, 6; Minneapolis, 5.

Exonerated.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Collector Seeberger in an interview asserts that in all his official acts he has complied with the spirit and letter of the Civil-Service law. He has made removals only for the good of the service, and his appointments have been made upon the same principles that govern him in selecting employes for his private business. Three distinct reports have been submitted to the President by the Civil-Service Commission on the investigation of the Chicago post-office and custom-house. All the commissioners, however, agree in exonerating the collector and postmaster from the charges preferred by the Civil-Service Reform League.

A Woman in the Case.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Fanny B. Roberts is accused in an affidavit by R. S. Scott, the absconding teller of the Manhattan Bank, with having received $10,000 of the money which he stole from that institution. He says he was intimate with her; that she blackmailed him, and that this led to his crime. Mrs. Roberts lives in a magnificently-furnished house at 105 West Thirty-eight street, and but little is known of her in that vicinity. A warrant was issued and she has been arrested. The warrant is in a suit brought by the bank for $10,000.

Admiral Franklin Retired.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Admiral Samuel R. Franklin, in command of the European squadron, was retired from the service yesterday by reason of age. By his retirement Commodore Bancroft Gherardi, the commandant of the navy-yard in Brooklyn, became a Rear Admiral. He has been on his vacation for three weeks, and is at present at Newport. Admiral Gherardi is the youngest of his rank in the navy, being only fifty-five years old, over forty of which he has spent in the service.

A Charge Proved False.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The President's telegram to Governor Pattison, chairman of the Pacific Railway Commission, expressly authorizing and approving the employment of counsel in the proceedings to compel Leland Stanford to answer certain questions, is given to the public. It completely demolishes the New York World's charge that the President had not properly sustained the commission in its efforts to get at the bottom facts of the Pacific railway iniquities.

Cotton Dealers Not Alarmed.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Aug. 25.—The Manchester Guardian declares that cotton-dealers in this city are indisposed to take fright at the reports of a short cotton crop in the United States, in view of the favorable advices received earlier in the season, and the fact that, despite the poor crops of the last two or three years, the supply of cloth has always been sufficient.

Offered a Reward.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—Lieutenant-Governor Moorehouse has offered a reward of $300 for the arrest of William Thomas Abbott West, the Methodist preacher of Chesterton, Ind., who brought his servant girl to St. Louis after seducing her, and poisoned her to get rid of her. This is the maximum reward which the State is permitted to make.

Grottkau Released on Bail.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 25.—The friends of Paul Grottkau, the Anarchist and editor of the Arbeiter Zeitung, who has been in jail pending the decision of the Supreme Court on his case, yesterday secured the necessary $2,000 bail and he was released.

Four Horses Burned.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 25.—Yesterday morning a stable at Latonia (Ky.) fair-grounds burned with four valuable horses. It is ascertained that the loss by the fire was over $12,000. The four horses burned were the property of Mrs. Dugher, of Glendale.

Governor Bartlett's Condition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Governor Bartlett has been resting easy and seems to have revived somewhat from his paralytic stroke. There is little, if any, reason to hope for his recovery, yet his death may not occur for several days.

Wheat in the Northwest.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 25.—Ex-United States Senator McMillan declares that the wheat crop of Minnesota and Dakota was never better in quality or heavier in yield than this year.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all coughs and colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this wonderful Discovery. Trial bottles free at Frank Sherer & Co.'s drug store.

GYMNASTIC TRAINING.

The Results of Valuable Researches by a Noted Educator.

Dr. Hitchcock, of Amherst College, has been carrying on for the last six years a careful study into the physical measurements of the students under his charge, and has obtained results that differ materially from the popular impression regarding physical development. He has taken the measurements of 1,258 students, including forty-seven athletic men belonging to the base-ball and foot-ball teams, and men who have taken prizes at athletic exhibitions. He makes a separate group of these athletic men, and finds that their average height is greater than that of the average student by only four-tenths of an inch! "Of the fifteen men," says Dr. Hitchcock, "who took first prize in 1886, four were above and eleven below the average height of the college; and of the nine first prize men at the gymnastic exhibition three were above and six below the average height." That which is true respecting height is also true respecting all the bone measurements. The bones of the athletic men are usually but a small fraction of one per cent. larger than those of the average man. Even in the muscular measurements the difference in favor of the athletic man is only 3.3 per cent. In the tests of strength the difference is but 7.2 per cent. Dr. Hitchcock draws from these statistics the deduction that in making athletes "physical gifts count for less than the energy of will, which is put upon the muscles. It is the intelligent training, and not the big measures, which determine the standards of excellence in our athletic feats and sports."

All this is certainly encouraging to small men, and accords with our own observation of the development resulting from special exercise of the muscles. It shows very clearly that the difference between the athletic and the untrained man lies more in the fact that the athlete has learned how to use his muscles to the best advantage rather than in the possession of greater natural strength.—Phrenological Journal.

Varieties of Canary Birds.

The canary bird belongs to the finch family. It is a native of the Canary Islands. There are two species—the native and the domesticated. The native birds are ashy brown on the back, with greenish yellow feathers on the throat, shading to golden yellow on the breast, the sides are a dingy white, the wing feathers brown black, with pale brown edges. The female is of a more dingy and dull-colored plumage than the male. The domesticated bird is larger, with entire plumage of a rich, yellow color. The two species were originally one, the difference having been the result of changed surroundings and uniting with other species of finches. The original canary stock was imported from the Canary Islands to Europe about the fourteenth century. Crossing has given rise to about fifty varieties of the domesticated bird. Some of them are of very beautiful plumage, and remarkable powers of song. It is said, however, that the sweetest singers among the domestic varieties are surpassed by the clear notes and rich melody which the native birds can produce.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Every fancy that we would substitute for a reality, is, if we saw aright, and saw the whole, not only false, but every way less beautiful and excellent than that which we sacrifice to it.—Sterling.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Eclectric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

BABY HUMORS

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th inst. In May, 1885 he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda and water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily growing worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

Scrofulous Humors.

Last spring I was very sick, being covered with some kind of scrofula. The doctors could not help me. I was advised to try the Cuticura Resolvent. I did so and in a day I grew better and better, until I am as well as ever. I thank you for it very much, and would like to have it told to the public.

A Word About Catarrh.

"It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammeling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the refined pleasure of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membranous lining and envelopes the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. Sanford's Radical Cure by Inhalation and by Internal administration have never failed; even when the disease had made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell and taste have been recovered, and the disease thoroughly driven out."

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, neatly wrapped in one package, with full directions; price, $1.00. Potter Drug and Chemical Co., Boston.

During the past five years Dr. Vance has devoted his attention almost exclusively to the treatment of

Diseases of the Rectum

He is meeting with success in all diseases that are curable. Some patients neglect to have treatment until it is too late. His treatment is almost painless, and does not prevent his patients from doing ordinary work. Patients improve from the first treatment.

The doctor may be consulted at the Myers House, on August 12th and 26th. All who are troubled with any form of Piles, etc., should call upon him.

OFFICE ALEX. COOK, ATTY. AT LAW
WAUKESHA, Sept. 13, 1886.

In this interest of suffering humanity, I am prompted to say that after having been afflicted with an aggravated type of Piles for more than thirty years, being advised thereto by trustworthy medical authority, based on personal experience, I placed myself under the treatment of Dr. Vance, of Madison. And my advice to all suffering in like manner is unhesitatingly to do likewise, and thereby receive full, as apparently in my case, permanent cure.
A. COOK.

FOOTVILLE, WIS., September 25, '85.
I was troubled with Piles for about twenty-five years. Under Dr. Vance's treatment I have entirely recovered. While under treatment I was not prevented from work a single day. I can recommend Dr. Vance and his system of treatment for piles to all who are thus afflicted.

BRIEFLETS.

—From all appearances the Janesville mills will soon be idle.

—There was a mild runaway on Milwaukee street this morning.

—Regular services will be resumed at the Baptist church next Sunday morning.

—A divorce was granted to-day in the case of William Naugle against Cora M. Naugle. The plaintiff lives in Beloit.

—Janesville Commandery No. 2, Knights Templar, assemble in regular semi-monthly conclave this evening at Masonic hall.

—Both E. J. Samuels, ticket agent in the Milwaukee & St. Paul depot, and Herman Atherton, head clerk in the freight depot, are being pushed by their friends for the local agency of the road.

—School Commissioner Wilson who has just completed the school census of the city, says the population has increased over a thousand during the past year, and that we now have a city 12,000 people.

—Justice Prichard decided the replevin suit of Jacob Lichenberger against Eugene Mitchell in favor of the defendant. J. B. Doe, Jr., appeared for the plaintiff and Smith & Pierce for the defendant.

—Funeral services over the remains of Harry P. Case, infant son of Mrs. Nora Case, were held from the home on Academy street, at three o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. Thomas Walker officiated.

—Miss Mary Porter, for some years connected with the Bridgeman school in China, will speak to the ladies at the Congregational church, to-morrow, at 4 o'clock. All are invited. Special invitation to the young ladies' societies.

—Misses Nellie Smith and Eva Nash started this morning to walk from this city to Clinton. These pedestrian trips are becoming quite the correct thing. As athletic diversions they certainly leave gum chewing and fancy work far behind.

—Janitor Nelson, at the court house, is happier than a boy with a candy horse. His boiler room has been so well fitted up that he even talks about it in his sleep. All of the county boilers have just been overhauled, and those at the court house are practically as good as now.

—"I wish the arrangements for a private bus-line could be made some way," said a Milwaukee street business man this morning. "The idea of not having a 'bus at night trains or Sunday trains either, has always been a give-away and has cost the town considerable money."

—Sheriff Ward has just taken to Johnstown a man who left Janesville for Nebraska twenty years ago intending to "grow up with the country." After spending the best part of his life "roughing it" he comes back to die in the poor house.

—So far, the testimony in the Williamson case has not been of an especially damaging nature. E. B. Moses, who is still on the stand, has been examined principally in regard to the condition of Mr. Williamson's account on the shoe company's books. He claims the account was at various times badly overdrawn.

—A Stoughton dispatch says: Robert Dow was presented with a handsome gold-headed cane by the Misses Gertrude Hyland of Edgerton, and Mary Henderson, of Janesville, for his bravery in rescuing them from drowning during the storm on Lake Kegonsa on the 19th inst. The cane bears a suitable inscription.

—Sam Wyler is to run his cigar factory hereafter in the interest of a large Chicago wholesale house. This was his reason for giving up the retail business. But, by the way, the store has never looked better since it was opened than it does just now. The new proprietors have put in a fresh stock and expect to make things lively.

—Miss Hannah Wray entertained a large party of young people at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wray, Lina street, yesterday afternoon and evening, in honor of her guests, Miss Jennie Adee, of Center, and Miss Mary Hodge, of the town of Janesville. The young folks had a most enjoyable time

—Unexpected difficulties connected with the hotel 'bus-line arrangement have made it doubtful whether the plan will be carried out. Tuesday a paper was signed by each of the landlords agreeing to suspend the 'busses, but since then the paper has mysteriously disappeared.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Finlay, East Milwaukee street, is shrouded in mourning, and the fond parents are bereft of their little four-months old son Andrew Finlay, who died at 9:30 o'clock this morning, after a very brief illness. The grief stricken family have the sympathy of many friends in their sad affliction. The funeral arrangement have not be announced.

—"That item you published the other day about advertising," said a prosperous west side merchant to a Gazette reporter this morning, "was the most sensible thing I ever read. People who never advertise until just the time when they have more business than they can attend to anyway, ought to paste it in their hats. If folks would learn to advertise most when they want trade most, there wouldn't be so many failures, not by fifty per cent."

—"She called me a dirty old thief, and I want her arrested," was the tearful complaint of Nora Nash in Judge Patterson's court this morning. The person referred to as "She" was Katie Welch of the fifth ward. A warrant was promptly issued for her arrest but, so far, it has not been served. The court had another warrant of about the same kind to issue very soon after the first. In this case, however, both parties were of the sterner sex, E. D. Holmes figuring as the complainant and Thomas Hemmingway as the defendant.

—When the Monroe train pulled in this morning, there was blood spattered over the engine from cab to pilot. The front trucks were fairly dripping. Between here and Monroe the train had spun around a curve and into the midst of a flock of sheep before the engineer could see what was coming. It was, unquestionably, bad for the sheep. They were penned-up in a narrow cut and could go neither one way nor the other As the engine plowed its way through, slaughtered sheep were flung in every direction. Over twenty of the flock are believed to have been killed, but who the owner is, is not known.

—The water power owners in this city using power from the upper dam, are just now experiencing a little misunderstanding between themselves, and the indications are that it will result within the next twenty-four hours in the shutting down of all the mills, as there will be no water to propel the wheels. The river is very low, water the in lake reservoir is exhausted, and it is imposible to keep up a head when the mills insist on running more than a certain number of hours each day. Unless some mutual understanding or agreement is arrived at in a very few hours, there will be no water to "quarrel" about, and all wheels will be at a stan still. The water in the river above the upper dam is lower now than it has been in many years.

—Mr. David Henwood, of New York has been in Janesville for a few days with a most excellent assortment of engravings and etchings. It is surprising with what conscientious care and splendid judgment Mr. Henwood makes a selection of works of art for the public to examine and purchase. He never errs in this respect. He is true to his calling, unflagging in his industry to collect fresh and valuable subjects, and unswervingly honest in all his representations regarding works of art. It is gratifying to state that Mr. Henwood has met with success in Janesville. Our people who appreciate art, appreciate the men, and therefore have no misgivings in purchasing from him. He has many friends in Janesville who never fail to add to their art collections from the selections made by Mr Henwood. Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy, Mrs. Hiram Merrill, Mrs. Charles W. Hodson, and several others have purchased some splendid proofs from Mr. Henwood. Those who bought of him three years ago enjoy the satisfaction of knowing that the value of some of the proofs bought then has appreciated one hundred per cent. Mr. Henwood will be very glad to show his superior collection of engravings and etchings to all interested in art and who wish to buy such pictures as have an increasing and lasting value to them. He is stopping at the Grand.

MATRIMONIAL.

RAYMOND—TRUESDELL.

A long looked for event has at last taken place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Truesdell, of Shopiere, it being the marriage of their daughter Minnie to Hamilton Raymond. Both young people are well known in Janesville and the surrounding country, and their many friends wish them a long, prosperous and happy life. It was a very quiet affair, only the most intimate friends being present. Rev. T. S. Oadams, of Shopiere, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond left on the noon train today for the northern part of the state to visit relatives for a time, expecting ultimately to make their home in Whitewater.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. S. S. Lovejoy has been called east by the illness of her sister.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lawrence have returned from a visit with friends in other cities.

—Miss Barbara Knippenberg started for Sioux Falls this morning after a visit with relatives in this city.

—Miss Rosalia Hatherell has returned to River Falls, where she is engaged in teaching at the normal school.

—The Misses Carrie and Mabel Wales, of Racine, who have been visiting friends in this city for some time, returned to their home this morning.

—Mrs. L. A. Torrens went to Portage this morning. Both Prof. and Mrs. Torrens will return in a few days and will start from here to Toledo where the professor is offered a permanent engagement.

—A special train bearing General Manager Roswell Miller and other officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, passed through to Albany yesterday, on a tour of inspection of the New Glarus line.

—Dr. Twing Wiggin, who has been spending part of the summer in this city, will return within a few days to Chicago. The fact that Dr. Wiggin is meeting with decided success in his new home will be heard by his Janesville friends with much pleasure.

—Mr. and Mrs. Beard, of Streator, Ill., are in the city visiting Mrs. Beard's parents for a short time. On Friday, they go to Elsinore, California, at which place Mr. Beard has accepted a position as cashier in a bank, a position he has just resigned at Streator.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 48 degrees above zero. Clear with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 74 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 62 and 87 degrees above zero

The Check Was Forthcoming.

When Rev. Charles Deems, of the Church of the Redeemer in New York City, wanted money to pay off a debt on the building he called on Commodore Vanderbilt. "Are you going to preach what I want to hear?" asked the old man sternly. "I shall try to preach acceptably," answered the clergyman, in an evasive manner. But no sooner had he said the words than all the manhood within him rose in revolt and the spirit of John Knox seemed calling him to account. "I shall preach the Gospel as I believe and understand it, and if you have any special sins I shall be most likely to preach against them." "Humph!" said the Commodore, and ended the interview. The next day he sent Mr. Deems a check for $50,000 for not being afraid to do his duty.

Ely's Cream Balm was recommended to me by my druggist as a preventive to hay fever. Have been using it as directed since the 9th of August and have found it a specific for that much dreaded and loathsome disease. For ten years or more I have been a great sufferer each year, from August 9th till frost, and have tried many alleged remedies for its cure, but Ely's Cream Balm is the only preventive I have ever found. Hay fever sufferers ought to know of its efficacy. —F. B. Ainsworth, Publisher, Indianapolis, Ind.

A HORSE ON FREDERICKS.

A Clever Little Game Played by a Traveling Sharper.

Nick Fredericks, the West Milwaukee street liveryman, is one of the jolliest men in the business, and is as clever as he is fat. He can take and give a joke with as hearty a laugh as the next man, and is the life of company. Recently, however, a stranger played a little joke on him which Nick does not exactly appreciate, and for several days he has tried hard to keep it away from the boys, but it got out in the patrol wagon the other night, and we print it as told:

A strange, well dressed gentleman called at the stable and wanted a horse and light buggy to drive out in the country. Ever ready to accomodate the public, Nick ordered one of the finest "hooked up." As the stranger was leaving the barn with the rig, he remarked in a business-like way as he seemingly admired the out-fit:

"What'll you take for horse and buggy as the are?"

"Three hundred dollars," quickly responded Nick, not thinking the stranger wanted to buy.

"I'll take them," said the stranger, pulling the money from his pocket and handing it to the surprised liveryman.

The stranger then drove out of the barn and, stopping for a moment, called back:

"I suppose the horse is sound?"

"Yes, but if you don't like your bargain, bring the outfit back any time within a week and you can have your $300."

At the end of three days the stranger drove into the barn again and said the rig didn't just meet his wants.

"All right," was the prompt reply: "I'll be as good as my word. Here is the $300."

The gentleman pocketed it and started off, when Nick called out:

"Hold on a minute. You haven't paid me for the use of the rig for the three days you had it."

"What rig?"

"Why, my rig."

"I didn't have your rig," was the complacent reply of the stranger, whose eye had a merry twinkle in it; "It was my own."

Nick discovered the point, and without a word retired to his office for a fresh cigar.

[The above, in substance, is just now traveling through the country, and is made to do local duty in every town where there is a newspaper and livery stable. It first appeared some years ago in an eastern paper, went to Australia, and is now on a western tour. Knowing that Nick could stand it if we could, we just thought we would get ahead of the other fellow by telling the "story" first. That's all.]

NUMBER OF SCHOOL CHILDREN.

The School Census of The Year 1887 Completed—Some Comparisons.

School Commissioner A. O Wilson, who was appointed by the board of education to take the school census, has completed the work, and is now ready to make his report. The report will show an increase over the year 1886 of seventy-six, Mr. Wilson reports by wards as follows: the figures including all children between the ages of four and twenty years.

	TOTAL.	MALE.	FEMALE.
First ward	1,002	471	531
Second ward	811	419	392
Third ward	544	291	253
Fourth ward	1,207	630	577
Fifth ward	494	239	255
Totals	4,058	2,020	2,038

The report will also give the number of children between the ages of seven and fifteen as follows:

First ward	491
Second ward	390
Third ward	282
Fourth ward	576
Fifth ward	263
Total	2,005

The census shows that there are eighteen more girls than boys. There is loss of 17 in the first ward, and 49 in fifth ward, and a gain of 51 in the second ward, 74 in the third ward, and 17 in the fourth, over the census of 1886.

A Chinese Complexion.

When observed in one of the Caucasian race, is indicative of bile in the blood. Who would be yellow when he or she can exhibit the hue of health on cheek and brow through the aid of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an antagonist at whose onset liver complaint takes refuge in flight. Fur upon the tongue, nausea, sick headache, pains under the right ribs and shoulder blade, an unpleasantly odorous breath, are remediable with this benign alterative, which does not, like a potent cathartic, drench the intestines or, like the mercurial preparations, contaminate the blood. Not only the liver but the stomach and bowels are aroused, toned and regulated by this fine family medicine, which has won the confidence of the respectable classes, not by startling assertions on its behalf, but by the consistency of the claims made for it with its performance in every instance when tested.

WIDOWS IN THRONGS.

Every Species Known to the Genus to Be Found in Saratoga.

A correspondent of the New York Times is authority for the statement that second in importance to no other attraction at Saratoga, the mineral springs included, are the widows. If any man wanted to make a collection of widows, just as men collect crockery, post-marked postage stamps, coins and other very interesting things, he would find every species known to the genus, and every issue of the present century at any one of the big hotels here. Every other woman you meet is a widow, but she is a nice widow, and a rich one in every case, the richness in the matter of widows does not become embarrassing. Of them all a certain New England widow is looked upon as the most effective. She has fine jewelry, but nothing artificial which compares with a pair of eyes—widow's eyes—which she uses with matchless ability. They all dress effectively, all have attractive, commonplace faces, a little mellow by grief, and in some cases a little more mellowed by time. Some of them, in fact, look as if it would be wise to lay aside hopes of that second bridal robe, and inquire with Christian dilligence into the latest fashion in shrouds.

Their leader, by common consent, is a charming dweller at the Grand Union. The joys and woes of three marriages have invested her with an experience to which the others defer. Some of them can look back with tears to two occasions, when the rumble of the casket over the hearse-door roller has made them faint with agony, but she is the only one who has seen three occasions of that kind and lived. As she is the best of company, has a sympathetic heart and $8,000,000, it is within the possibilities that she may yet again listen to the Mendelssohn march, concluding, as she contemplates the terrible bigamous outlook of the hereafter, that she may as well be married for an old sheep as a lamb.

Kissed Them All Around.

Some time ago a young lady, who had been teaching a class of half grown girls in the Sunday-school of Dr. B.'s church, Brooklyn, was called away from the city, rendering it necessary to fill her place. The superintendent, after looking over his available material for teachers, decided to request one of the young gentlemen of the congregation to take the class. It so happened that the young man upon whom fell the superintendent's choice was exceedingly bashful—so much so, in fact, that he insisted upon the superintendent going and presenting him to the class. Accordingly the two gentlemen appeared on the little platform, and the superintendent began: "Young ladies, I wish to introduce to you Mr. C., who will in future be your teacher. I would like to have you tell him what your former teacher did, so that he can go right on in the same way." Immediately a demure miss of fourteen years arose and said: "The first thing our teacher always did was to kiss us all around."

A DAY AT SARATOGA.

How Fashionable Young Ladies Spend Their Time at Watering Places—A Sweet Creature's Edifying Chats with a Lovely Dude.

I asked a beautiful young lady from St. Louis, who was flirting with three handsome fellows on the balcony of the States, what she did in Saratoga, says Eli Perkins in the Saratoga News.

"Do you mean every thing I do?" she asked.

"Yes; I want to know the daily ritual of all you young ladies."

"Well, we get up at eight, put on our nun's vailing or batiste dresses and chip hats and meet Fred or Gus on the front balcony for a walk to the spring. At the spring we meet the girls and fellows from the other hotels, and we all drink the water and talk sensible."

"What do you talk about?"

"Oh, we girls talk about dresses and tell each other what the fellows said the night before. You know on those dark balconies the fellows do say lots of sweet things and some very sensible things, too. Now last night Albert McCormick and I had a regular philosophical discussion. He held the umbrella to keep off mamma's eyes and the electric light. Then we talked about the human soul—how destiny sometimes bound two souls together by an invisible chain. Then we considered the mission of man and woman upon earth—how they ought to comfort each other in sickness and health. Then Albert quite startled me by asking me if ever I really cared for any one. And when I said 'Yes, for papa and mamma,' he laughed and said he didn't mean them, and then I felt quite hurt and the tears came to my eyes, for I do love mamma, even if—"

"Well, what do you do after drinking the water?" I interrupted in my business-like way.

"Why, we all go to breakfast. Then after breakfast it's ten o'clock, you know, and we all sit on the balconies and hear the music and read the newspapers. Sometimes the flirting fellows try to hold our heads under the newspapers. Now, yesterday morning, Albert tried to. He leaned his face towards mine. I felt his mustache almost touch me as he whispered such nice words in my ear. He told me how he had longed for an opportunity to speak to me all alone. Then I was very happy, for I knew he was going to say something very nice indeed, and—"

"And after the balcony discussion, what next?"

"O, then we dress and prink up for dinner. And after dinner, it's five o'clock now, you know, we all go to drive. We drive to Moon's lake and take a lemonade, over to the Geyser for a glass of vichy, and up to Woodlawn among the cottages. Mother, she scolds us about being so worldly and rumpling so many white dresses where it costs fifteen dollars to wash them, and we girls look out sharp for the fellows in their dog-carts and tandems. Albert took me out in his trap yesterday. Such lovely horses, and Albert, wasn't he lovely, too! We drove over on the old road where nobody ever drives. Then we came back by Lake Lonely—just Albert and I, you know, and the stupid tiger behind—and Albert, he never talked so sensibly. He took my hand and said: 'Every father ought to give his daughter one hundred thousand dollars on her marriage day,' and I said: 'It would be real nice if they would do it—and I knew father would.' and then Albert sighed and his lips came—"

"And what do you do in the evening?" I interrupted.

"Well, we just dance. Mother buys the ball tickets and takes us in, you know, and sits and holds our things and talks scandal with the other mothers. Then the fellows, all dressed just lovely, join us, and we slide off into the waltz. We dress nice, too. How do you like this dress? Connelly's cut decollette, cost two hundred and fifty. I've brought out ten new ones this summer and six more to come. Well, as I was saying, the fellows join us and we dance—and dance and dance. And when we get tired and hot we promenade out on the dark balcony in the wind. Last night Albert held me so tight in the waltz that I almost fainted. When he took me out on the balcony to cool off, my face was so red. Albert said it was because my dress was so tight. I guess Albert did it. Then he commenced one of his sensible talks about brides having dots. I agreed with him, and told him I was to have two hundred thousand and then he put his arm around me. I felt his hot cheek against mine and—"

"Then after the ball, you all retire, don't you?"

"Not much. We girls all go up to Sallie Smith's room and talk it all over. The fellows say they are going down to the reading room but father, he's very blunt, father is, and he says the profligate dudes go down to the club house, drink champagne and play on the green. Playing on the green must be very innocent, but drinking wine is awful. I know Albert don't drink. Why last night he ate cardamon seeds all the evening and said he ate them so that he'd have no desire to drink. Oh, Albert is so good and true, and he says if finances are all right that we will be married in the—"

"But I must go now," I interrupted, and then I went to my room and wrote down just what the sweet fashionable girl said.

Useful at Rural Resorts.

Fogg, the Boston Transcript's funny man, who has been spending a few days in the country, is thinking about patenting a contrivance of his, called the crow discourager, designed to prevent and abolish the practice of crowing, especially at early dawn, by the gentlemen members of the feathered family of the barnyard. Fogg's device is simple, consisting only of a cord, one end of which is attached to chanticleer's leg, while the other is affixed to the superior section of his bill, which is perforated to receive the string. When a rooster essays to crow he always begins by throwing back his head. When fitted with one of Fogg's Discouragers, it will readily be seen, the bird, in throwing back his head, shuts his mouth whether he will or no, and, consequently, there is no aperture through which the crow can emerge. Fogg says that before he thought of his Discourager he couldn't get a wink of sleep after two o'clock in the morning; but after fitting the fowl with his long-felt want, he slept like an angel and was late at breakfast regularly and habitually. Fogg isn't sure, but he thinks his invention may be so perfected in time as to be applicable to dogs, and possibly to babies.

A French Wit's Revenge.

That was a neat compliment that a French wit paid to an enemy who had come and scribbled "Coquin" (blackguard) upon his door one night with a piece of chalk. Next morning the wit went to the fellow's house, and said, in the politest way possible: "Monsieur, you left your name at my door last night, and I have come to return the visit."
